

Hello!

Welcome to Alary. We are starting our fall semester sign-up soon and just want to give you a quick intro to Alary.

If you want to learn a language, and you know another language (preferably a foreign one), you can sign up to be paired with a person who knows the language you want to learn and wants to learn the language you can teach. Sometimes it doesn't work out, and we will pair you with a person who knows the language you want to learn while pairing you with another person who wants to learn the language you can teach. The idea is that you will be giving back in some way.

If you purely want to teach, yay!! We welcome and greatly appreciate you.

If you don't know a foreign language, or don't want to teach, that's fine too! You can pay back with boba or some other drinks.

How the process works is you sign up on our Google doc, and we will match you as soon as possible. (We ask that you meet at our "Language Lounge" for the first meeting, but you are free to meet whenever and wherever with your tutor / tutee afterwards.)

This year we have a room reserved in Barrows 174 every Saturday from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. This time is called the "Language Lounge" -- we welcome anyone who wants to drop in with questions about Alary, the process, etc., and you can meet your tutor / tutee there as well!

Questions? Email us at alarylanguage@gmail.com. We are excited to be starting this journey with you!

With love,
The Alary Language Team
